Acorn Gardens

“A wonderful combination of town and country”

A sought after location

In the heart of the rural county of Cheshire, close to the market town of Northwich, Leftwich is not far from the beautiful Roman city of Chester and the picturesque towns of Knutsford and Tarporley, which feature a range of delightful pubs, bars, restaurants and shops.

Town and country

Leftwich is a perfect location, with good access to local major roads, which lead to the regional motorway network. Leftwich enjoys good commuter links, just minutes from the A556, with convenient access to the M56 and M6 motorways and within easy reach of Manchester Airport.

With miles of glorious Cheshire countryside right on the doorstep, Leftwich is surrounded by a landscape rich in natural heritage.

The nearby Lion Salt Works has been voted the UK's best heritage project, while the famous Anderton Boat Lift is one of only two remaining working boat lifts in the UK, linking the River Weaver to the Trent and Mersey Canal. History fans will also enjoy visiting Northwich's Weaver Hall Museum and Workhouse, which provides a fascinating insight into the varied social, cultural and industrial history of the area.

Outdoors enthusiasts will love exploring Delamere Forest, while, to the north of Northwich town centre, Northwich Woodlands offers its own green oasis to be discovered on foot, by bicycle or on horseback.
